DAVID JENKINS DIES AS RESULT OF A BEATING

David Jenkins, the victim of a murderous assault at his home in Wilson Lane Wednesday night, died at 1 o'clock this morning at the Deo hospital, without regaining consciousness. He was found in an unconscious condition in his home yesterday morning, by his brother, Hyrum Jenkins, and taken to the hospital. His head had been battered with a blunt instrument.

The murder is puzzling the officers, but every effort is being made to find some clue that will lead to the identity of the slayers. The great question before the officers now is whose horse with buggy was tied near the old man's cabin about 10 o'clock Tuesday night. No identity as to the rig or its owners has been discovered.

The officers say that if the parties left the rig near the cabin were friendly visitors they surely would report to the sheriff's office. Unless such report shall be made within a few days, the conclusion will be drawn that the owners of the rig were the parties guilty of the murder.

A more thorough search of Jenkins' clothing has disclosed the few dollars in change he had Tuesday, dispelling the theory that he had been robbed of that amount. The money was found in his clothes wrapped in a piece of cloth. However, the officers hold to the theory that the motive for the murder was robbery and that after beating the man into insensibility, the would-be robbers departed, fearing they had killed their victim.

Another theory advanced is that Jenkins may have had some controversy with parties with whom he had former dealings, and an assault was made, the guilty parties, after realizing his serious injuries, making haste to conceal their identity.

The party who saw the rig tied near the Jenkins cabin Tuesday night states that he paid no particular attention to it. The evening was rather cold and he was bundled up as he drove past.

Traces of a buggy that stopped at the point where it is said the rig was tied came from the west, was driven easterly a short distance, where it turned around and proceeded in the direction from whence it came.

Sheriff T. A. DeVine and county attorney Joseph Evans have decided to hold a coroner's inquest over the body of David Jenkins. A jury is being empaneled this afternoon and the inquest will be held tomorrow. The officers say that every person in the Wilson district who can shed any light on the affair will be summoned before the jury. The brothers of Mr. Jenkins requested that the inquest be held.

POWERS AND FLYNN RELEASED BY COURT

Sing Wong, an alleged Chinese vagrant, forfeited $150 bail this morning in the municipal court. He was arrested last night by Sergeant Jerry Kellner.

"For his own good," the judge stated, Carl Anderson was sentenced to serve 30 days in jail. He was drunk again.

J. Riley, James Finnegan, T. Clark J. Franklin and J. Kelly, received the regulation five days for first time drunkenness. They will wield shovels tomorrow in the cemetery, with plenty of company, as the gang was large when they were sent to jail. S. J. Williams, arrested by Officers Richardson and Hearn on Twenty-fourth street, between Hudson and Grant avenues yesterday, for drunkenness and disturbing the peace, was sentenced to serve 10 days in jail or to pay a fine of $10.

Jack O'Neil, charged with drunkenness, forfeited $5 bail.

Following the completion of the misdemeanor cases, the preliminary hearing of the case of the State of Utah vs. Richard Powers and Patrick Flynn was taken up by Judge Barker. The defendants were charged with grand larceny, the complaint alleging that they robbed Patrick Quigley of $9 on the night of January 18, 1916. The case was an aftermath of the trial and acquittal of Frank Philbrook for the murder of Quigley and the state, being unable to prove a conspiracy between the three men, the introduction of other testimony was over-ruled by the judge on motion of Soren X. Christensen, attorney for the defense. The prosecuting attorney, Joseph E. Evans, then moved that the case be dismissed and the motion was granted. Powers and Flynn went from the city jail free men, a few minutes later.

JAS. M. BLANTON UNDER ARREST

James M. Blanton, the alleged swindler who narrowly escaped capture in Ogden about a week ago, was arrested in Sacramento, Cal., last Saturday and has been taken to Salt Lake City for trial on a charge of fraudulently securing $50 from E. Crane, a Salt Lake merchant.

Shortly after Crane had discovered that a check for $50, given him by Blanton, was worthless, he notified the Salt Lake police department. The Ogden police department was in turn notified to look out for the alleged writer of the bad check and immediately took up the case. In the course of their search, some of the local detectives went to the Healy hotel and learned that Blanton had been registered there, but had left a few hours before, presumably for the west.

While in Ogden, it is said, the alleged crook made a lavish display to impress upon the hotel attaches the idea that he was rich and influential.

Blanton was formerly secretary to General Manager Cannon of the Nevada Northern railway.

SLAYER OF DR. OSGOOD TO BE EXAMINED AS TO SANITY

Attorney Soren X. Christensen of Salt Lake today was employed to defend Heber Burch, the slayer of Dr. C. F. Osgood, and during the afternoon had a long consultation with the prisoner and his two brothers, J. W. and W. Burch.

Mr. Christensen stated to a Standard representative that there is no question in his mind but that Burch was insane and totally irresponsible for his acts when he shot the doctor. He also says that an examination by a lunacy board will be requested and he thinks it is the only hearing that will be necessary.

Burch clings to his former statements that he had been looking for an opportunity to kill the doctor the past two years. He also states that he was directed by "a man in blue to shoot." He told the attorney that he recognized Dr. Osgood as the man who operated on him a few years ago and he felt that he had to shoot him.

The preliminary hearing has been set for May 16 but, as indicated by Attorney Christensen, a lunacy board examination will be asked for before that date.

EIGHTEEN WOMEN ARE MURDERED

Under Promise of Marriage, Victims Were Inveigled by a Fiend in Hungary.

Budapest, May 12, via London, 4 p. m.—Further official investigation into the case of the modern Blue Beard in the village of Cynkota who, it develops, was known as Bela Kiss, shows that the man made a practice for years, according to the police, of decoying women by marriage advertisements, obtaining their money on marriage promises and then murdering them.

The police have a record of eighteen women with whom Kiss was at various times associated, eight of whom have long been reported as missing, while the ten others have not yet been found. In the house he had occupied were discovered packages of love letters from all parts of the world, including the United States.

Four of seven sealed laden cases found in the dwelling were opened. Three contained the bodies of strangled women, while in the fourth were seven women's dresses. One was identified as belonging to a young woman who had been missing for ten years.

NEGRO KILLS U. S. SERGEANT

Shoots Officer Through Heart at Mounted Service School Stables.

Leavenworth, Kas., May 12.—Sergeant James J. Jackson and Miss Ernest Brown, 22 years old, were killed and an unidentified woman was severely injured this morning by William White, a negro who had purchased his release from the army mounted service school at Fort Leavenworth, near here yesterday. White escaped across the Missouri river in a rowboat.

Sergeant Jackson, who was attacked at the mounted service school, was killed at the school's stables. He was shot through the heart. Soldiers who were with him pursued the negro, but White held them at bay with a rifle until he got into the rowboat.

White first shot the unidentified woman, who is known only as "Minnie." He fired at her through a window in the home, where she was employed. She was shot through the arm.

Miss Brown was shot and killed nearly two hours later at the quarters of Lieutenant William Green, where she was at work. She likewise was shot through a window.

Fifteen minutes later the negro appeared at the service school and shot Sergeant Jackson.

BRITISH REPLY TO RED CROSS

London, May 12, 4 p. m.—In regard to protests from American sources against the British embargo on shipment of medical supplies to the central powers, which caused the American Red Cross to request relief societies last month to collect no further supplies for Germany and Austria, Sir Maurice De Bursen, former British ambassador at Vienna and now attached to the foreign office, made the following statement to The Associated Press today:

"The position of the British government in this matter is quite clear. They are prepared to allow the dispatch of medical supplies to any American Red Cross units which may be working for the central powers, upon receipt of assurances as to their employment. They are not, however, prepared to allow medical supplies to be generally imported by the enemy."

"It is worth while considering what a general permit to import these supplies would mean. It is clear, in the first place, that it would not only apply to supplies from America. The enemy would be able to draw their supplies in large quantities from all parts of the world. They would be free from all necessity of using from their existing supplies such articles as rubber for medical purposes and they would be able to devote them exclusively for warlike ends.

"In this connection it is interesting to recall the fact that the German Rubber Journal of Sept. 17, 1915, stated that an adequate supply of rubber for the medical needs of the German army had been assured by recent measures. In view of this, one cannot but regard with a certain amount of skepticism stories circulated by the enemy of nurses who died for the want of rubber gloves."

"It is instructive to consider the record of the Germans themselves in these matters. In the Franco-Prussian war they did not allow medical supplies to enter Paris and in the present war they prohibited the export of German medical books because they openly profess to be grudge other countries the benefits of German scientific skill. They, moreover, have given no indication that they would allow medical supplies to be imported into Great Britain, from which countries their submarine blockade is avowedly intended to cut off all supplies."

"Of the legal right of the allies to intercept medical supplies there can be no doubt. Medical supplies never have been regarded in previous wars as entitled to preferential treatment. Thus, in the American civil war all medical supplies including quinine and anesthetics were prevented from reaching the Confederate states."

SECRET PAPER CAUSED UPRISING

San Francisco, May 12.—"The Leader," an Irish publication here, prints today a purported copy of a document alleged to have been issued secretly by the British government and the discovery of which is said to have precipitated the recent revolution in Ireland.

According to "The Leader," the document fell into the hands of Tom Kelly, a Dublin alderman, who read it at a special meeting of the city corporation the Wednesday preceding the riots. The exposure of the government's plan of preparedness, according to "The Leader" was the signal for the uprising.

The document, according to the alleged copy, had "the sanction of the Irish office on the recommendation of the general officer commanding the forces in Ireland."

It directs that on receipt of an order issued from the chief secretary's office, Dublin castle, and signed by the under secretary and the general officer, certain measures be put in force immediately.

These measures included the arrest of all members of the Sinn Fein national council, the central executive Sinn Fein volunteers, General council Irish Sinn Fein volunteers, county board Irish Sinn Fein volunteers, executive committee national volunteers and the Coisne Gnotha committee Gaelic league.

The alleged document directed that the Dublin Metropolitan police and Royal Irish constabulary forces in Dublin be confined to barracks; that provision be made to notify inhabitants to remain indoors "until such time as competent military authority may otherwise direct or permit; and give directions for military occupation of certain premises throughout the city."
